

L'Oiseau

Ronan & Erwan Bouroullec, 2011

vitra.

L'Oiseau

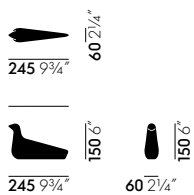

While furniture is undoubtedly the core element of any interior design, it takes the addition of decorative and personal items to create an atmospherically rich and vibrant collage for the home. Fabric, colours, lighting, objects and accessories help create the aesthetic character of a room and allow interiors to be adapted to changing moods and requirements.

Natural motifs have played an important role in interior decoration since the earliest known examples and are also reflected in the work of Ronan and Erwan Bouroullec. Milled from natural maple and sanded smooth, the wooden L'Oiseau figure recalls the clarity of wood objects in Nordic folk art. The L'Oiseau wooden bird adds an appealing touch to modern interiors without becoming cute or even kitschy like many other animal figures.

Materials

- Material: solid maple.

Dimensions

L'Oiseau

Surfaces and colours

Wood

